Trivia Night Tips

A regular trivia quiz night can keep your venue very busy and your clients entertained, bringing in regulars on your chosen night of the week. Increase your attendance by giving out flyers, advertising in your magazine, and putting up posters. Offering vouchers for food on your trivia night or discounts on the bar for the evening will increase loyalty and attendance. Work to support your regulars and they'll work to bring you new clients.

Special Quizzes can be arranged - just call us and ask for a quote or email us the details and your phone number and we'll call you... Contact Us

Introducing The Weekly Australian Trivia Quiz Package.

This Quiz (106) is from 10th December to the 17th of December 09

AVAILABLE On Each Thursday From 10am. AU-EST.

One New Instant Trivia Weekly Quiz is created each week with General Knowledge and Popular Culture trivia questions. Anyone can use the trivia quiz package, whether they are an independent host or a pub, club or other venue.

To use the quiz you will need to organize some prizes especially one for a winner. You'll need to have someone used to speaking to a noisy crowd to ask the questions and mark the sheets. This is what we call the trivia host. In a noisy room a microphone or PA system helps to get attention. A score board is also handy if you have a lot of tables.

The Main Quiz Questions

Created with popular culture and general knowledge questions on all different topics, the main quiz aims to please a wide audience. The Weekly Quiz has 40 questions, in printable PDF with a template to print the answer sheets for clients. You'll need to run these answer sheets off on the photocopier, one for each table. This gives the trivia host two rounds of 20 questions of general knowledge questions to ask for a quiz that will run approximately two hours.

Package Also Includes These 3 Exciting Quizzes

Instant Puzzle Page At Complete Trivia, we know from our experience that a trivia night should be entertaining and not feel like an exam. So to keep your clients scratching their heads, debating questions and generally having a good time all night, we don't stop at general knowledge questions. We don't want your clients getting bored while the quiz is marked or while they are waiting for the next question to be asked. People need variety to stay attentive to the host.

Instant Famous Faces

So as well as the 40 question quiz that the host calls out, we also provide a picture and a puzzle quiz. These are printed out and copied and one is put on each table, one for each round. These will keep your client's attention focused on winning extra points, (or perhaps win separate prizes if you wish), and help give the evening variety and a bit of spice. As these quizzes stay on the tables for an hour there is time to let the brain fetch that elusive memory.

Spot Questions & Tie breakers

A spot question quiz is also provided. These are a different type of question and includes 2 questions that can be used as tie breakers if they are needed. Spot questions allow a host to add bonus points or to vary the entertainment by giving out extra prizes, vouchers or points which can help to balance the odds of winning for people who rarely get prizes. Some of these are progressive questions such as pick the author from their book titles.

All four quizzes come as a package for instant download and the old quiz is replaced by the new on Thursday morning at 10 am. Older quizzes are no longer kept available, to ensure that the quiz is always current and accurate.

The whole package is satisfaction guaranteed for one week. We'll happily refund you if you are disappointed with our quiz package because we want you to be 100% happy with your choice. So you don't need to worry about spending money on something that doesn't live up to your expectations.

The Instant Trivia Weekly Quiz Package is also ideal to use as a fund raiser night for private functions or for special occasions such as birthday parties.
